Dear Beeb:

I hope the reconstituted jury does its job well and that you are happy. If it were that I was just too busy to come I would be ashamed of myself. It was indeed because we are still up in the air about Jonathan's prognosis and hopes.

I haven't heard the term "fink out" in a long time. I guess that's what I did and shame on Arvin and Marion for doing do also. On the other hand, Jordan Baker and Kevin Kilner are splendid actors and splendid people and I am sure they will bring a new aspect to the proceedings--acting professionalism.

Of course you're doing angry political paintings; I'm thinking of doing some myself. Do send me slides.

I'm glad that you both and the puppy are well. Aches here and there from time to time will, shortly, move to constant ones. Be ready.

Love,

Edward
