Dear Bebe:

I shall assume that I got that check, though you might check with your disbursing office to see if I cashed it! When I go back to the city (on my way to Amsterdam on Aug 20th, to direct The Zoo Story in Dutch!) I'll look at my Texas checkbook.

I guess it would be fun (is that the word?) to go to Maziwotek for one of my plays, if you were to do the sets & keep me sane. I think The Ballad of the Salt Cafe would be a good choice (if they have a good male dwarf or real show actor). The next question would be when!? I have some summer time available, while my falls etc are fullish through 2001 or this point.

When support would be for & who would provide it? Keep me informed.

& what of my winter plans? Is that still a viable engagement? I'll be back in the US October 8th & need to know some reasonable
