Dear Bebe -

I have a phrase for an country now -
"The absolute arrogance of absolute power."

I lecture frequently these days on such cheeky subjects as the "death of democracy," "the destruction panivity of the electorate," etc, etc.

Is this the "interesting time" the Chinese says ~~was~~<sup>wasn't</sup> ds of?

No, you're right. I don't want to go to Vladivostok, and you don't, either. I won't go, will you?

A cheeky one, however! You close reads "love from the 3 of us." I suppose you're including your non-existent new dog, or ... just maybe ...?

Love to the 3 of you (whichever)

Edward
